UNIT 5

ASKING AND PROHIBITING TO DO SOMETHING

1. "should" can be used to ask someone to do something or give someone such as:

- I should be at work before 8 a.m.
- You should return the dvd before the rental store closes.
- You should get up early so you can't be late for school.

2. "must not" can be used to prohibit someone from doing something, such as :

- You must not borrow more than three books at a time.
- Children must not play with matches.
- The river is full of crocodiles. You must not swim in there.
- You must not eat that chocolate. It's not yours.

3. There are many others expressions to show probitions, such as:

- Keep away from the fingers. They are wild.
- Don't park your car.
